Lewes Bonfire Night	Lewes, East Sussex	5.00 – 10.30 pm	Most bonfire sites are ticketed - these must be purchased in advance directly from the bonfire society.
-------------------------------------	--------------------	-----------------	---

Called bonfire capital of the world, Lewes hosts the largest festivities in the UK! It is not a firework display as people expect. While there are fireworks later in the evening at designated bonfire society sites, the main focus of the event are the processions which are historical. Bonfire Societies from Lewes and Surrounding villages each begin their own procession, joining to form one huge parade through the town. Crowds of 80,000 are expected each year, so if you're planning to go, prepare for huge crowds, queues and no parking/vehicles in the town centre itself. It is NOT suitable for young children.
